Concentration Camp Memorial:

The Ebensee Concentration Camp was constructed in November 1943 as a subsidiary camp of Mauthausen. Code named “Projekt Zement” (Project Cement), the aim was to use thousands of prisoners from the concentration camp to construct huge, bombproof tunnels into the mountains. The plan was to transfer the Peenemünde rocket development and testing base to a more secure location.

Home, Heaven, Hell

Farewell and a new beginning in the Salzkammergut. The newly adapted and modern museum in the former salt administration building in Ebensee shows the destiny of the many women, men and children who have been forced to leave their countries due to economic situations, religious persecution or just simply in search of a better future and new challenges. There are additional exhibits of local culture and technical and economic history.
